Remember, 10:30
as to when they shall come through with the Lord Jesus, and shall reign in this world.
God shall be nothing less than the thousand times greater.

A staff member of the Senior Comet recently interviewed one of the Professor's at Fairview High School. Our Professor, Mr. Wilkinson was born in Muncie, Indiana June 17, 1931. He then attended and graduated from Huntsville High School in 1949. This school was located in Randolph County. The antiquated building has since been abandoned, and a new three school consolidation has taken place.

Upon graduation from High School he joined the Marine Corps and served for a period of three and one half years. Saw active duty with the first Marine Division from September 15, 1950 until August, 1951. He made the Inchon-Seul landing and invasion, the Wanson landing and Northern invasion, A member of the evacuation and withdrawal from North Korea. Served in the Central action from Wonji North where the 38th Parallel was the demanding factor.

Received a medical service-connected physical disability from the Marine Corps on April 1, 1953.

Enrolled at Ball State Teachers College September 1, 1953. And graduated June 4, 1955. He studied Biology and Commerce for one year, then changed to a physical education Major and a business minor. Was graduated with a B.S. degree in education.

Fairview High School is the first teaching position he had held. However he did do student teaching at New Castle, and participated at Burris High School at Muncie, Indiana.

Also, this being his first coaching assignment he is quite concerned and enthusiastic about the success of the impending session. The Yellow Jackets are extremely hampered by a short enrollment, thus making the pickings few. This year especially; for the entire High School only eight boys are capable of competing in High School athletics. This being true we will be limited to only the varsity game.

However, we have five 7th and 8th grade boys participating in basketball, so we will in all instances possible play a 7-8 preliminary game.

Fairview has a deficiency in size but where basketball is a factor desire, determination and the willingness to Co operate for the sole purpose of winning is the resultant success story of any team or individual.

It is his firm conviction that the Yellow Jackets of Fairview High School have the fire to make the soup boil.

"HALLOWEEN QUEEN CANDIDATES"

The election for Halloween queen was held during activity period today. The candidates for queen were:

Shirley Isaacs-----Senior Class
Karen Link-----Junior Class
Sandra Whipple-----Sophomore Class
Kitty Belle Soukup---Freshman Class

All the high school elected the most popular candidate which turned out to be Sandra Whipple. On Halloween night she will ride in a decorated convertible which is furnished by the Jaycees'. They also allow us to decorate a float on which the cheerleaders will ride in the parade. We all hope that Sandra wins the election for queen.

YELL LEADERS

Activity period Tuesday
was used for the election of the high school yell leaders. Out of five girls Shirley Isaacs; a senior, Betty Beaver;
a sophomore, and Joy Ann Ray;
a freshman were chosen. Linda
Smith; a freshman is the substitute.

Junior High yell leaders are Connie Ray and Janice Simpkins.

The Yell Leaders and the fans
sincerely hope that they will be a big boost to the team.

JOKES

Son: Dad, I want to be a truck driver when I grow up.

Dad: That's fine son, I certainly won't stand in your way.

Pete: What would happen to a girl if she swallowed a spoon.

John: I don't know. What?

Pete: She couldn't stir.

The greatest of the ups and downs is to get up in the morning and get down to work.

The best sign of fall is dad's signature on a check to pay for daughter's clothes.

Sirley: What's a patriotic worm.

Joy: I don't know. What?

Sirley: One who joins the apple core.

Smith: Can I have five.

Jones: No-

Smith: ---minutes of your time.

Jones: -trouble at all friend.

Youngsters often say things by sound, too. Usually they've heard phonetically without stopping to figure out what they're saying. A teacher listening to a small boy recite the pledge of allegiance discovered the pledge of allegiance to go this way. "I pledge a region to the flag and the country for Richard Sands."

In a department store, a large garbage can bore the following notation on the tag, right under the price. "This article can't be wrapped as a gift." Garbage they'll wrap, but not the can.

NO TROUBLE

Ship Captain: "Sorry sir, you can't be sick here."

Passenger: "I can't. Watch me."

RIDDLES

Stands like a man,
Roots like a pig,
Wild about honey,
Furry and big.

Ans. Bear

Big are its ears,
Two big hind feet,
puff for a tail,
Keeps its coat neat.

Ans. Rabbit

Wears a black mask,
Egrees its food,
Rings on its tail,
Lives in a wood.

Ans. Raccoon

SO TRUE

You've reached middle age,
When to loaf you're content,
and your "get up and go"
Has got up and went.

OVERTIME

Mrs. X. - "Why didn't you tell we were buying chandeliers?"
Mrs. X. - "Don't be silly - those are my new earrings."

Mountain Guide: "Be carefull not to fall here whence it is so dangerous. But if you do, remember to look to the right. There's a wonderfull view."

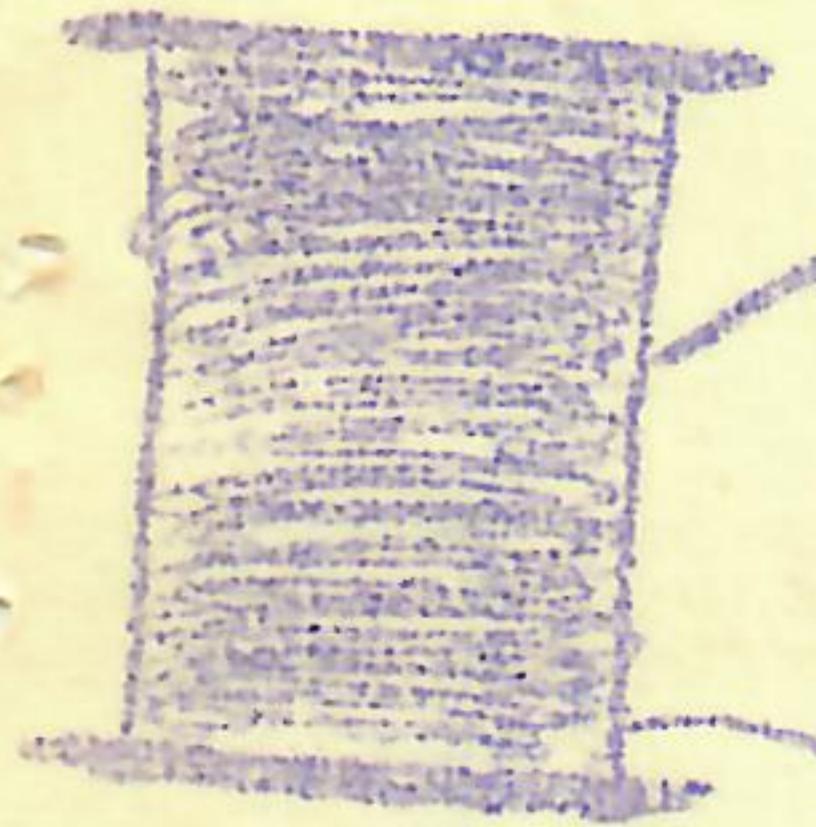

For girls Only:

"To prove he's a good boy, let many a man will turn this bus around."

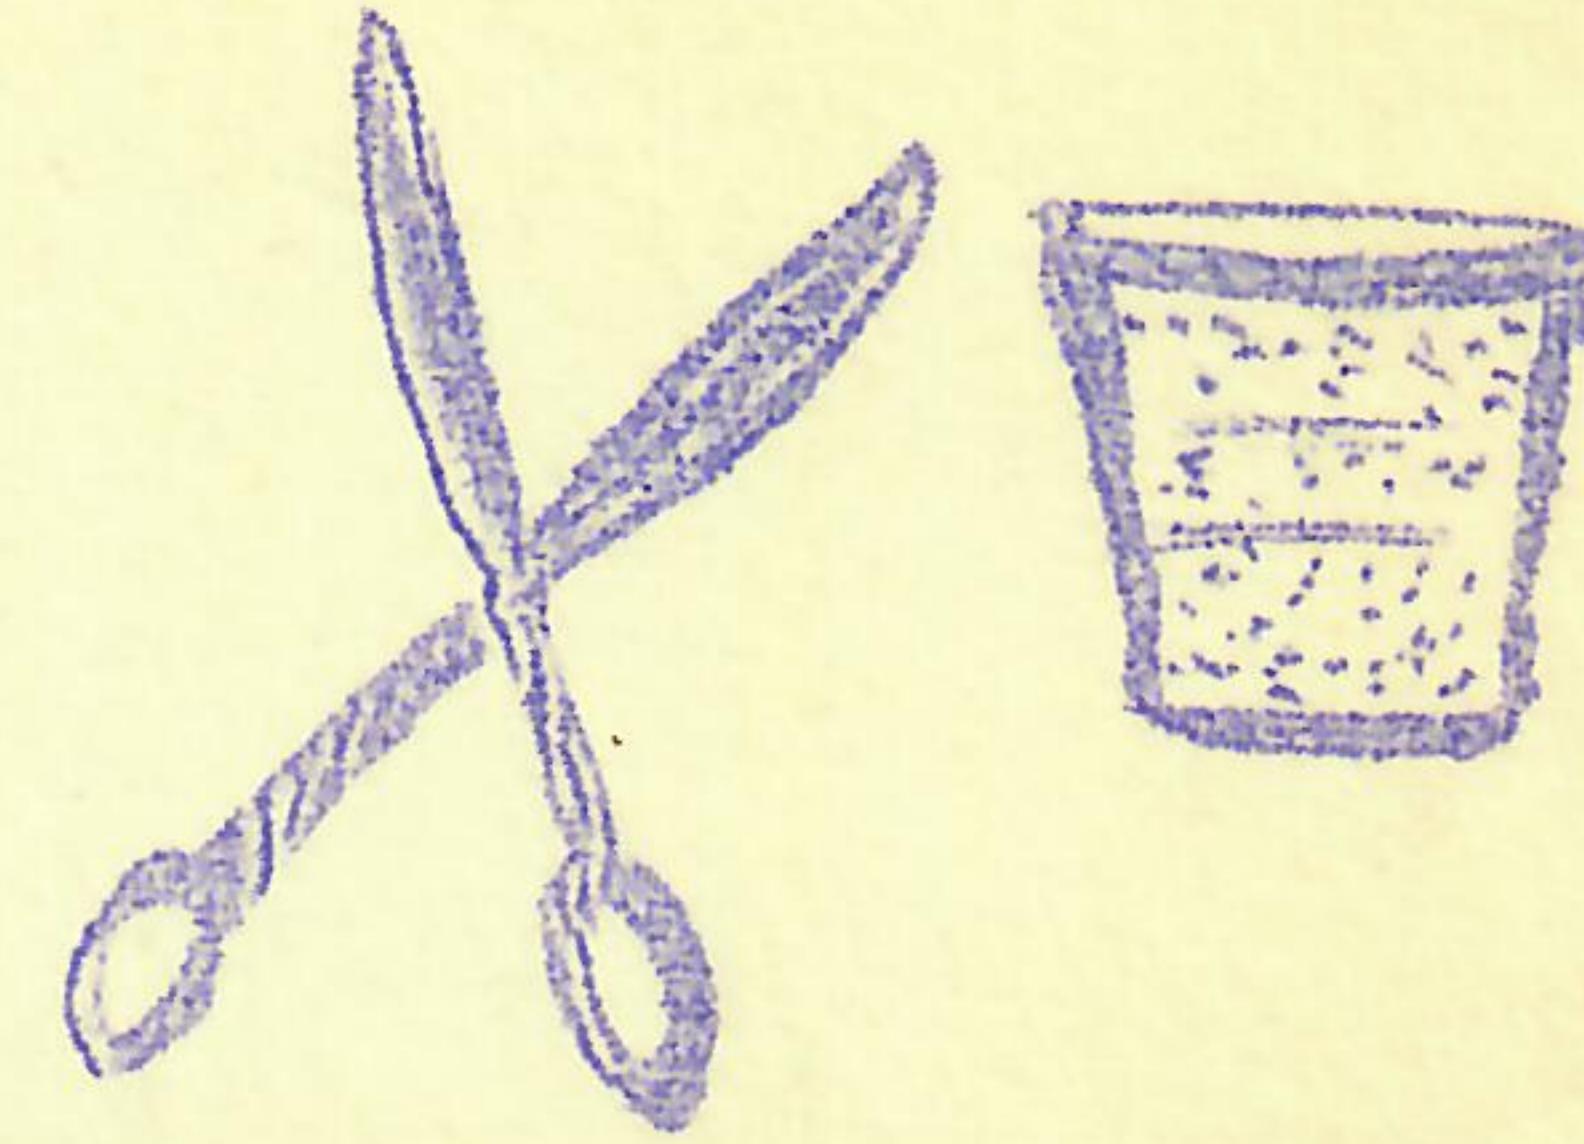

"The world's a snowball."

"A snowball's carlosity is immense."
